Message from the Head.

I have decided to improve some security aspects around the school. I have had some help from leading experts in the security field, offering advice and guidance. This week we've had fitted a new visual intercom system. If you would like access to the main building, please press the call button and look at the camera. If Claire and Mel like the look of you, they will buzz you into the reception area. We are also having a brand new emergency response alarm system fitted in all of the classrooms. I want the staff and children to feel safe, in the very unlikely event of an unwanted intruder attempting access to the school.

Mrs Warne, Mrs Clark and Mrs Hare took some children to the Brainkind neurological care centre Stagenhoe this week. The children sang songs from Young Voices and this experience was certainly a huge highlight for the residents. It is not an easy gig, but the children performed magnificently. Well done.

Have a lovely weekend. Mr Edwards and Bandit

Thank you, God, for the amazing world you have made for us.

Thank you for
 hoppy bunnies with pink noses,
 ponies to ride,
 frogs that hop and swim,
 pretty flowers that smell so good,
 birds that sing,
 sharks with sharp teeth,
 and the food we eat.

Thank you for teachers to help us learn and books to read.

Thank you for the beautiful babies and the mummies who look after them.

Thank you for birthdays, parties with friends, and presents.

Thank you for our hearts to love.

Thank you, God, for everything.

Reception wrote a wonderful prayer last week and it was read out in celebration assembly. The sentiment of every line was just incredible. Well done Reception.

Year two had a project day today as part of their geography topic work. Each group presented their posters to the rest of the class. In Miss Pickard's absence, Mrs Hawkes and Mrs Anness did a wonderful job teaching the children today.
